

City Chase Canada – 2017 Series – Official Rules

1. Eligibility:

In order to compete in The GoodLife Fitness City Chase – Canada Competition (the “Competition”), participants must be over the age of majority in their respective jurisdiction of residence. In order to be eligible to win, participants must:

- Be legal residents of Canada, and at least one (1) member each 2-person team must be able to provide proof of citizenship in the form of a valid passport or similar government-issued documentation;
- In the case of the individual division, the individual must be able to provide proof of citizenship in the form of a valid passport or similar government-issued documentation
- If declared a winner of the Competition, I have no restrictions on their ability to compete in The GoodLife Fitness City Chase Canadian Championships in 2017 (the “Canadian Championships”), should they take place, including having no restrictions on their ability to travel to a destination to be announced.

The following individuals are not eligible to win the Competition:

- Employees of City Chase Inc.
- Any employees of affiliated or related companies, partner or sponsoring organization or suppliers of materials and services related to this Competition, deemed to have confidential knowledge concerning the Competition;
- Any individual deemed to have confidential knowledge concerning the Competition; and
- Any immediate family member (defined as spouses, siblings, parents, or children, regardless of where they reside) or member of the household (whether or not related), of such employees or individuals.

Prior to participating in the Competition, participants must sign and return a Participation, Liability and Publicity Release and Waiver to City Chase Inc. by the deadline specified in the documentation or you may be disqualified.

2. The Competition:

The Competition is a contest of skill, consisting of a series of ChasePoint challenges (each a “challenge”), which teams or individuals must successfully complete. Teams and individuals may be eliminated at any time throughout the Competition for failure to complete a challenge, or otherwise based on the format of the challenge. The first team to have both teammates reach the identified finish area from the intended direction will be declared the winner of the team division, and likewise for the individual division, subject to completion of the required challenges, compliance with these Official Rules, and verification by the Competition Officials.

If more than one team/individual is present at a challenge location at the same time, they will complete the challenge in the order in which they arrived. Competition Officials reserve the right to delay a team/individual until the previous team/individual has completed the challenge before allowing the second team/individual to begin.

In the unlikely event of a tie, Competition Officials reserve the right to assign a final, tie-breaking challenge to the tied teams/individuals and the winner of that challenge will be declared the winner of the Competition.

For all teams and individuals successfully completing the required challenges, official ranking will be recorded in the order that they crossed the finish line. For teams and individuals completing less than the required challenges, the ranking will be recorded in descending order of the number of ChasePoints completed, and then the order in which they officially crossed the finish line.

City Chase Inc, is not responsible should the terms of a particular challenge be offensive to the morals, practices or beliefs of a participating team or individual.

During the Competition participants must:

- Obey all local laws, regulations, bylaws and rules of the road. Participants are solely responsible for their actions and the consequences of those actions during the Competition.
- Within the team division, stay within twenty (20) meters of their teammate at all times, unless explicitly instructed otherwise by a Competition Official.

- The official Competition shirt (“Shirt”) must be worn at all times (unless otherwise instructed by Competition Officials), in such a way that it, and any printing on it, is visible at all times (i.e. any additional clothing must be worn under the Shirt; Shirt may not be worn as a bandana, belt, or other than as a shirt), unless a shirt was not provided for the event.
- Carry valid government-issued photo identification at all times.
- Comply with the directions of the Competition Officials, local authorities, and property and/or venue owners and managers.

Participants may:

- Use the general public (with whom there is absolutely no prior connection whatsoever) as a resource during the Competition, provided that such assistance otherwise complies with these Official Rules.
- Use cellular telephones, computers, Internet-enabled or GPS-enabled devices, or other devices approved by the Competition Officials, during the Competition.

Participants may not:

- Pre-arrange or accept help, assistance, support, guidance and/or contributions of any kind from any family member, friend or acquaintance (other than their teammate) who is on the Competition course whether directly or indirectly, during the Competition. It is the obligation of the participants to decline any such assistance if offered.
- Use of any private mode of transportation, other than what is provided by the Competition Officials. Teams may not travel in a private vehicle (i.e. accept rides from others), use bicycles, in-line skates, or any other mode of transport. Travel is only permitted by foot or public transit, unless specifically authorized otherwise by a Competition Official.
- Engage in unsportsmanlike, prohibited, or illegal conduct. Verbal or physical aggression towards the public, local officials, fellow participants, or Competition Officials, or acts of vandalism, theft, or harassment will not be tolerated, and may result in a time penalty and/or disqualification from the Competition, at the sole discretion of the Competition Officials.

4. Grounds for Disqualification:

The Competition Officials reserve the right to disqualify for any reason at any time, at their absolute and sole discretion, any team or team member engaging in, or thought to be engaging in, any conduct that is contrary to these Official Rules or the instructions of Competition Officials. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Competition Officials reserve the right to disqualify any team member or team that appears to the Competition Officials not to be conducting themselves in a safe and sportsmanlike manner. In the event that a single team member is disqualified, his or her team shall be disqualified and forfeit the right to participate further in the Competition or to win a prize.

In the event of physical injury, sickness, accident or any other incident which may bring into question an individual's ability to safely complete the Competition, Competition Officials may, in their absolute and sole discretion, disqualify the team. For greater certainty, the Competition Officials reserve the right to disqualify a team, or to cancel, suspend, amend or terminate the Competition at any time, at their sole and absolute discretion, if any factor interferes with the ability of the participants to safely complete the Competition as contemplated by these Official Rules. In the event that a team is disqualified or otherwise unable to complete the Competition, no portion of its entry fee will be refunded.

5. Prize:

Grand Prize: TBA

City Chase Inc. may, in its sole discretion, award prizes for the following categories: top finishing teams, best costume, and best team name. Approximate retail value of Runner Up / Participation Prizes ranges from $10 to $1000.

City Chase Inc. may, in its sole discretion, award additional prizes based on random draw. In order to receive any random prizing (i.e. prizing unrelated to the team's official ranking), the selected recipient must be present at the time of announcement. In the case that the selected recipient is not available to accept the prize in person at the time of announcement, City Chase Inc. and/or the Competition Sponsors will have the right to select a new winner (whereupon the initial winner will be deemed to have forfeited any rights to the Prize) and award the Prize to such a recipient in the manner provided above.

All prizes must be accepted as awarded and cannot be transferred, exchanged or substituted, whether in cash or otherwise. City Chase Inc. reserves the right in its sole discretion to substitute an alternate prize of equivalent monetary value if for any reason the prize cannot be awarded as described.

The winner of any prize further agrees to permit City Chase Inc. and/or the Competition Sponsors to use the winner's name, city of residence and photograph and/or video image in any publicity or advertising without compensation, and releasing City Chase Inc., the Competition Sponsors and their respective agents, officers, directors, employees and representatives from any and all liability, damages, costs, expenses and claims arising out of or relating to the awarded Prize.

6. Interruptions for Filming and Event Planning/Execution:

It is expressly understood that the Competition may be filmed for television and promotional purposes. In an effort to accommodate the execution/planning/filming of the Competition, it may be necessary for the Competition Officials to (i) augment these Official Rules with verbal or written instructions during the Competition, (ii) delay the start of, or interrupt and restart, any given challenge, or (iii) otherwise amend or intervene in the operation of the Competition. The Competition Officials shall, in their sole and absolute discretion, make every reasonable effort to ensure that, if there is any positive or negative impact to a team's/individual's performance caused by such amendments or interventions, such impact will be equally balanced among all teams.

7. Additional Terms and Conditions:

By participating in this Competition, participants agree to abide by these Official Rules. Entrants who have not complied with these Official Rules are subject to disqualification. City Chase Inc. reserves the right to disqualify any entrant whose character or conduct, if declared to be the winner, could bring the reputation of the Competition, its sponsors or City Chase Inc. into disrepute. City Chase Inc. reserves the right to modify the Official Rules in any way at any time it deems necessary or appropriate without materially affecting the terms and conditions of this Competition. Contestants and the winning team agree to make themselves available, without further compensation, to participate in additional publicity appearances as may be reasonably requested by City Chase Inc. Contestants shall not, without City Chase Inc.'s prior written consent, give any interview or make, give or release any statement for publication, or otherwise to be made public, by any means relating to the Competition. The Competition is subject to all applicable laws of the province of Ontario and the laws of Canada applicable therein, as well as local law. The courts of Ottawa shall be the exclusive jurisdiction to hear any matter arising out of the Competition. In the event of any discrepancy or inconsistency between the English language version and any other version of the Official Rules and any other Competition documents, translations of which may be provided at the sole discretion of the City Chase Inc. for convenience only, the English version shall prevail, govern and control.
